

November 2003

AFRL awards more than $4 million to universities

by Fran Crumb, Information Directorate

ROME, N.Y. — The Air Force Research Laboratory (AFRL) Information Directorate at Rome has recently awarded contracts and grants totaling more than $4 million to colleges and universities across the country.

Institutions receiving funds for research programs related to the directorate's information technology mission include:

— University of Minnesota, $800,000, "Situational Awareness Analysis Tool for Aiding Discovery of Security Events and Patterns."

— Arizona State University, $799,576, "Cyber Signal/Noise Characteristics and Sensor Models for Early Cyber Indications and Warning."

— University of Utah, $797,799, "Intuitive Visual Representation of Network Events to Improve Decision Making."

— Dartmouth College, $701,777, "Process Query Systems for Cyber Indications and Warnings."

— University of Michigan, $299,999, "Research in Architecture Approaches."

— University of New Orleans, $277,752, "Intelligent Signal Processing for Integrated Sensor System."

— Polytechnic University of Brooklyn, $260,634, "Steganalysis Based on Image and Audio Quality Metrics."

— University of Florida, $98,511, "A Microwave-Photonic Analog-to-Digital Converter."

— New Jersey Institute of Technology, $40,000, "Lossless Data Hiding without Salt-Pepper Noise and Robust to JPEG20000 Compression." @